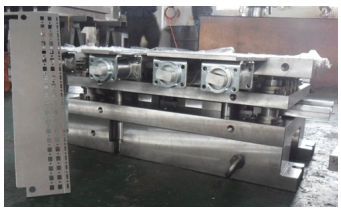
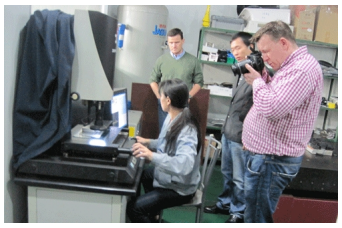
On Oct. 28th, 2011, we delivery this progressive die to Germany on time.

This die is totally designed and manufactured according to European Mold Standard, including guide, pillar, spring system, cylinder system, Danly system, almost all the spare parts.




There are rigid requirements from our German customer, including the rigid sizes of every plates, thickness of every plates, also hardness of every plates.